Nebraska Governor Declares May 2012 General Aviation Appreciation Month

On May 17, 2012, organizations from across the aviation industry welcomed news that Nebraska Governor Dave Heineman has declared May 2012 as "General Aviation Appreciation Month." According to the Alliance for Aviation Across America, general aviation in Nebraska has an annual economic impact of $721 million and supports over 5,000 jobs.

NATA President and CEO James K. Coyne praised the governor's efforts to bring awareness to Nebraska and the country on the importance and impact of general aviation to a state's economic, community, and business development.
