Washington Governor Proclaims June as General Aviation Appreciation Month

Washington Governor Jay Inslee recently signed a proclamation declaring June 2014 as Aviation Appreciation Month. Across the Evergreen State, there are 134 public-use airports that support 248,500 jobs and $50.9 billion in economic activity. There are 44 charter flight companies, 113 repair stations and 64 FBOs in the state. "General aviation and community airports play critical roles in the lives of Washingtonians, as well as the operation of businesses, industry, ranches and farms," Governor Inslee stated in the proclamation.
