

SAN Update

August 11, 2014

GAMA General Aviation Jobs Rally to be Held in North Dakota

The General Aviation Manufacturers Association (GAMA) will host its twelfth General Aviation Jobs Rally in Grand Forks, North Dakota on September 5, 2014. The event brings together educators and students, members of the state legislature, local business leaders and general aviation enthusiasts to hear from U.S. Senators and industry leaders on general aviation's contributions to the North Dakota and national economy, the industry's jobs impact, and the importance of educating future general aviation leaders.

For more information on the General Aviation Jobs Rally and to register, click here.