FATA enters a new era of growth and change

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Titusville, FL – The Florida Aviation Trades Association members agreed to a name change to better describe exactly who they are and what they represent – The Florida Aviation Business Association. The decision was made at the Annual Conference held June 10 – 12, 2013 in Naples, FL.

The Association held the election for Officers and Board members. The following were elected for two year terms: Deric Dymerski, Atlas Aviation, Association President; Vice-President/Secretary/Treasurer, Mike French, Signature Flight Support; Board members, Bob Tyler, Air-Sur, Inc., Lyndse Costabile, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University; Bill Garghill, Sheltair Aviation; Paul Rose, Banyan Air Service and Sandy Showalter, Past President.

“The most important thing to your new President and our wonderful Board is to succeed, grow and provide great value to you. We want you to get out much more than you put in, and vow that you will,” stated newly elected Association President in his message posted on the website, www.fata.aero

Member, Richards & Associates, is working with the Association to complete the name change.
